Dear all,

I am sorry that I am unable to join you, however, it is great to see so many participating in sport and coming together to compete.

The National Hindu Students Forum's annual Sports competition is another example of the UK's passion for sport that the London 2012 team spoke about when we won the bid to stage the 2012 Games.

We want sports participation to be one of the key legacies to the Games and events like this will help to make that true.

Good luck with your event, for those of you looking to take up sporting careers, and for some I hope this is another step along the road to competing at a Games yourself!

With best wishes
