NHSF (UK) September Committees' Day 2018

National Hindu Students' Forum (UK) is delighted to be hosting two September Committees' Days, which will take place on Saturday 1st September at Sheffield University, and Saturday 15th September at Kingston University. NHSF (UK) supports over three thousand students and works with over 40 universities across the UK, aiming to create a 'home away from home' in which students can connect, develop universal values and blossom into future leaders.

Building on the foundations of our hugely successful June Committees' Day, our September Committees' Days look to provide students with opportunities to hone key skills that will be used throughout their university careers, while networking and forming valuable bonds with like-minded members of other universities.

The theme for this year is 'A Stepping Stone': SCD will be the beginning of the journey that students will undertake, with key workshops in public speaking, improvisation, financial planning and others paving the way for a prosperous and fulfilling year ahead.

Our highly experienced mentors, National Committee and NHSF (UK) alumni will all be present, ready to provide their support and insight into how the values of NHSF (UK) can be utilised and carried forward to many campuses across the country.
